ANDRUS ANSIP

Vice-President-designate for the Digital Single Market

A Digital Single Market

 @Ansip_EU  #teamJunkerEU

 1956
Tartu
(Estonia)

 2004-2005
Minister of Economic Affairs and Communications

 2005-2014
Estonian Prime Minister

After being mayor of Tartu for six years, Andrus Ansip became Minister of Economic Affairs and Communications. He eventually became the longest-serving Prime Minister of Estonia. Under Ansip's leadership, Estonia became the first country in the world to hold an election allowing voters nationwide to cast ballots over the Internet in October 2005. Tartu was the first city in the world to introduce paying for parking via mobile phone in 2000, when Ansip was its mayor. Ansip graduated from the University of Tartu as a chemist and trained in this area before entering the private and financial sector, followed by politics.

Andrus Ansip's objective will be to make Europe a world leader in information and communication technology, equipping it with all the tools necessary to succeed in the global digital economy and society, while making use of the opportunities offered by digital technologies which know no borders.

eIDAS Regulation Launching Event 14 October 2014

Last edited by Newsroom Editor on 14/10/2014

On 14 October afternoon, the eIDAS Regulation launch event took place with the participation of Commissioner Neelie Kroes, representatives from European Parliament and Italian Presidency of the Council.

Venue:
Brussels

Further to the recent entry into force of eIDAS Regulation last 17 September , an eIDAS launch event was organised on 14 October in the afternoon.

The event is organised to highlight that eIDAS is key to unlock the Digital Single Market, with the participation and sponsorship of private sector stakeholders.

During the event, an electronic signature ceremony of the eIDAS Regulation was held. MEP Ulvskog, the eIDAS Rapporteur during the legislation process, signed on behalf of the European Parliament and Mr Giacomelli, Italian Undersecretary for Telecommunications, signed the Regulation

OS X Yosemite and smart cards status

Yosemite (OS X 10.10) is now out since October 16th, 2014.

This article is the continuation of "OS X Yosemite BETA and smart cards status".

CCID driver

The CCID driver is still in `/usr/libexec/SmartCardServices/drivers/ifd-ccid.bundle`.

The driver has been updated from version 1.3.11 (released 28 July 2009) in Mavericks to version 1.4.14 (released 25 November 2013).

$ grep -A 1 CFBundleShortVersionString /usr/libexec/SmartCardServices/drivers/ifd-ccid
.bundle/Contents/Info.plist
<key>CFBundleShortVersionString</key>

COMING SOON: Become Estonia's e-resident!

The Republic of Estonia will be the first country to offer e-residency.

People from all over the world will have an opportunity to get a digital identity provided by the Estonian government – in order to get secure access to world-leading digital services from wherever you might be.

For details on what-why-how see right-side menu or a eResident_leaflet (.pdf).

With e-residency, you can become part of the digital society revolution taking place in our dynamic Northern European country. You can become an e-Estonian!

We will start issuing the e-resident digital identity by the end of 2014.

You can sign up here to be the first to know once we go live and you can start applying:

Thank you for your interest.

We will let you know once you can apply to become the e-resident of Estonia.
